BiFolkal Kits

Recall your youth or childhood and share a memory
or two or three or more!

24 Food Programs: For each program there is a mouth-watering presentation, appetizing discussion questions, tempting activities and resources, and a delicious large-print taste-tested recipe.

African American Lives: DVD with two media presentations and guide. Shirley A. Page has taught school in Philadelphia for 43 years. CD with guide and five sing-along songs

An Album of Friends: offers an introduction to a discussion of all kinds of friends: old friends, newly discovered friends, casual friends, understanding friends, and friends on call.

Apronstrings: This collection of aprons and the stories that they (or their owners) might tell will prompt many more stories from your group, and maybe some aprons, too. The 14-minute DVD has subtitles.

Birthdays 5-a-Day: share a birthday for each day of the year. Look up your own special day, and those of your group members. How are you like those who share your birthday? How are you different?

Fathers: A man with seven children is usually more satisfied than a man with a million dollars. The father of seven does not want any more. Agree or disagree? Talk about TV dads, which one would be the best and why.

The Fifties: DVD with two media presentations and CD with guide. Sing-along songs and Reminiscence. With 12 black and white pictures.

Holidays: Include kits for Valentines Day, St. Patrick's Day, Easter, Memorial Day, Labor Day, Arbor Day, 4th of July, Halloween, Thanksgiving, and Christmas.

In Agony & Ecstasy: offers reflections on fashion as fashion offers reflections on our lives and Seven sing-along songs.

Many Hands: DVD with media presentation and 8-page guide. "Many Hands" begins with the call to work, compares workdays present and past, and considers the reasons why we work and singing-along songs and more.

Mothers: Thoughts ranging from "All mothers are working women" to "Mothers do not die because they live in the hearts of their children." Talk about the women who helped raise children, whether they were related or not.
