

Accessing the Database

Access HeritageQuest® Online from our library web site at www.antigopl.org

Near the top of the library home page, you will see a horizontal bar with menu options. Move your mouse over Reference & Research, and a menu will appear. Move your mouse so that it highlights Databases on this menu, and a submenu will drop down. Click on "Genealogy" to open a new page.

There are two databases on this page. Scroll down and click on the Heritage Quest® Online icon.

If you access this database outside of the library, you will see a Remote Patron Authentication prompt. From the drop-down menu, select "Wisconsin Valley Library Service" and then enter your library barcode number.

Using the Database

For more instruction on how to use this database:

Regardless of the section you have first selected, you will see a Help icon in the far upper right corner once you leave the home page.

Click on this icon, and another page will open with a description of the database. In the upper left corner, you will see a "Back to Table of Contents" link. If you follow this link, you will find a wide assortment of help topics which you can view and/or print.

There are helpful directions on how to perform basic and advanced searches on all the resources, including viewing and saving them.

Features of HeritageQuest® Online:

HeritageQuest® Online provides a unique, growing collection of research materials for tracing family history and American culture. This powerful online library, with original page images for all documents, can be accessed at the library or from the convenience of your home.

HeritageQuest® Online is designed for everyone from the beginning genealogist to the proficient practitioner who, after years of work, is still uncovering the past. With over 25,000 books currently available, the entire U.S. Federal Census, PERSI™, Freedman's Bank Records, Revolutionary War Pension Records, and other expanding collections, HeritageQuest® Online provides one of the largest collections of genealogy material in the country.

The home page of this site gives you access to all the variety of resources available.

Navigating the Site

Select one of the resources from the home page menu. Whether you are in the Books section or the Census section of HeritageQuest® Online, you will see a different toolbar that includes elements specific to that section. These toolbars are designed to guide you through the product easily.
