

Who can use Outreach Services?

Antigo Public Library Outreach Services are available to all Langlade County residents, regardless of age. The situation that prevents a resident from leaving their home to visit the library may be temporary or longer term.

Give us a call at 623-3724 if we can be of assistance!

Antigo Public Library Outreach van

The Outreach van visits the following nutrition site each month in Elcho

Weekly visits are made to the Eastview, Rosalia Gardens, Pine Meadow Apartments, and Adult Daycare in Antigo.

Rotating collections of paperback books are left for three months in apartment buildings in Elcho.

Movies are exchanged at Adult Daycare and Rosalia Gardens each week, with books being rotated once a month at Rosalia Gardens.

Books are also brought monthly to Evergreen Terrace and Care Partners residents as needed

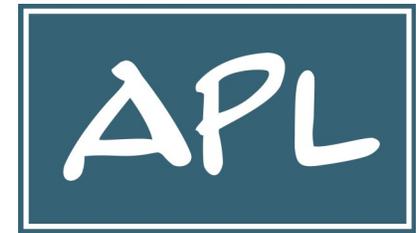

Finally, the Antigo Public Library's Outreach program visits individuals in their homes on a regular basis.

Outreach Services

The Antigo Public Library has been providing outreach services for more than 30 years. The scope of these services today includes bringing library materials to nursing homes, assisted living facilities, meal site locations, and to individual homes and apartments throughout Langlade County.

The library can bring you many different kinds of materials in various formats.

Best of all, this service is free!

If you know of someone who could benefit from this service or are interested yourself, please call Elizabeth Simek, Outreach Coordinator, at the library (623-3724).
